

As reprinted from 10/06/2008

Treasurer Give Economy Mixed Review

Arizona Treasurer Dean Martin presented an economic update Monday at the Payson Town Hall.

Martin spoke on both the national and local economy as well as the state budget, which has the largest deficit in the state's history.

Martin said even amidst a floundering economy, national exports remain high and he expects the economy to recover in the next two to three years.